LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Sun rises to-morrow at 7:08; sun sets at 4:22. High water 1:43 a. m. and 5:10 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair; warmer; winds shifting to southerly.

CHINA WEDDING.—The wedding day with its love and faith, its hopes which exclude the thought of disappointment and its ambitions which are blind to possible defeat in the years to follow, is one of the few golden days in the lives of most people. But after twenty years of love and faith, of hope and disappointment, of achievement and defeat, the retrospect should bring added lustre and real worth to the anniversary. So it was in the tasteful, hospitable and happy home on Payne street of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Keys, who last night celebrated their marriage of twenty years ago. It is to be questioned if the youthful bride and groom of 1873 appeared to better advantage than the more mature couple who stood last night in the decorated parlors receiving the congratulations of the many friends who kept the house crowded from 8 until 11 o'clock. These young people of twenty years ago have lived in our midst, established a home and won the confidence and esteem of a large circle of friends, who practically attested their regard in the numerous and beautiful articles of china ware presented. Mr. and Mrs. Keys added another proof to their already established reputation as entertainers when the guests were ushered into the dining room and enjoyed the dainties and refreshments their hosts had prepared. No more pleasant occasion has occurred in this city, and we but express the wish of all present when we say, "May the future of the bride and groom be brighter and happier as the years go by."

SENT TO THE CHAIN GANG.—The twelve white men and one negro, arrested yesterday afternoon by Lieut. Smith and a squad of police on the environs of the city, were this morning sent to the chain gang for thirty days by Mayor Strauss. Previous to the arrest a negro, answering the description of the one caught with the white men, entered the yard of Mr. Elisha Butler's residence and picked up a rooster. When the police invaded the camp of the tramps the rooster had been dressed of its feathers and visceral apparatus and was undergoing a boiling. Much annoyance is occasioned on the suburbs of the city by the increased number of tramps who invade this section of the country, and heretofore when arrested they have been merely ordered out of the city. This order they obey according to the letter, but hang around the outskirts, sleeping in cars and barns and pillaging for an existence. The negro in this gang remarked when arrested that should this corporation refuse to take him he would commit some other to do so. The Mayor told the array they should remain in their native homes and make their own cities take care of them, if they can find no employment. In a few weeks the work of opening south Pitt street will be commenced, and all itinerant caught hereabouts will be utilized. This morning the police picked up seven more strange white men who could give no satisfactory account of themselves.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Strauss presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Nineteen white and one colored man, arrested under the vagrant law by Lieut. Smith and Officers Howson, Ferguson, Bettis, Davis, Smith, Griffin, Grady, Tiger and Travers, were sent to the chain gang for 30 days.

A white man, arrested by Officer Howson on complaint of his wife, who charged him with drunken and disorderly conduct, was dismissed, the difficulty having originated over the disposition of the furniture preparatory to a dissolution of matrimonial relations.

Rebecca Quill, arrested by Officers Young and Ticer, Nancy Thoms, arrested by Officer Hayes, and Edwin Thoms, all colored, for disorderly conduct, were fined $2 each, or given 30 days in the work house.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and cool. Sixteen prisoners and ten lodgers were at the station house.

ANOTHER EXEMPLIFICATION.—The power of advertising was still further exemplified yesterday by an order Mr. D. Bendheim received from Columbia, S. C., his correspondent having read his advertisement in the GAZETTE and requesting him to send samples of several articles advertised. Comments are unnecessary. The times are dull, but enterprising merchants drum up business when they freely use printer's ink.

HI HENRY'S MINSTRELS.—Amusement lovers will have an opportunity of attending one of the finest and strongest amusements of the season—the well known Hi Henry's Minstrels, who appear at the Opera House Tuesday night. This organization has been before the public for years and has earned the reputation of being one of the best. Their press notices teem with praise and there is not a doubt as to their merits.

DEATH OF AN OLD LADY.—Mrs. J. Weinberg, widow of Joseph Weinberg, and mother of Mrs. Henry Strauss, died at her home in Baltimore suddenly this morning. Mrs. Weinberg was well known in this city and other parts of Virginia, where she spent many of her younger days, and throughout her life was beloved and respected by all who knew her.

DEATH OF A FORMER ALEXANDRIAN.—Mr. James G. Grimes, a former Alexandrian, but who for several years past had resided in Washington, died in that city on Tuesday. Mr. Grimes was for many years a huckster in the Alexandria market. Thirty-five or forty years ago he had a meat stall in the court of the old market house. He was about 80 years of age.

THE U. R. K. OF P. FAIR.—The following was the vote at the Uniform Rank K. of P. fair last night:

Lady's Gold Watch—Miss Florence Turner, 10; Miss Eva Darley, 7.

K. of P. Badge—M. D. Boyer, 9; Chas. Kell, 6.

P. C. Jewel—C. A. Eward, 17; W. R. Burnham, 5.

I. O. O. F. Pin—B. R. Foley, 5.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.—The stockholders of the National Capital

Brewing Company held their annual meeting in this city to-day, declared a dividend and elected the following board of directors: Albert Carry, Robert Porter, C. A. Strangmann, E. F. Abner, J. D. Bartlett, J. L. Vogt and Frank Madigan.

PERSONAL.—Miss Mary Norton, who has been visiting Mrs. Thomas White, has returned to Washington, accompanied by Miss Rose Head.

Mr. M. S. Parker continues extremely ill at his home on King street.

CURED BY FAITH.—An interesting and remarkable case comes from Sumnerfield, N. C. Mrs. Davis, the young wife of Dr. W. C. Davis, of that place, was very ill with fever, and continued to grow worse until it seemed, as both she and the family thought, that she was near death's door. Her relatives and friends were gathered around the bedside, and she had bidden them good-bye. Just as they thought she was almost gone, as if by a miracle, arose from the bed and walked to the fire-place, saying she was cured—cured by faith. Since that time she has continued to regain strength, and is now almost restored to her usual good health.

THE BANK OF ENGLAND.—In its financial article yesterday the London Times says: "Alarming rumors revealed in the city on Tuesday. Reports have been current for days affecting the management of the Bank of England, also concerning the losses of the bank, supposed to have been incurred owing to certain irregularities in regard to advances. These irregularities have not been denied. The inquiry is proceeding, but enough is known to prove that the losses are much less than alleged by reckless speculators." The Times believes the rumors that certain directors of the bank are about to retire are without foundation in fact. The financial editor says in this connection: "There must be some fault in the system under which the irregularities in question occurred. The bank ought to make known at once the facts concerning the public."

GOOD TEMPLARS.—At a meeting at Fells Church recently of the committee on arrangements for the Grand Lodge of Good Templars, which commences its annual session there on the 24th of December, J. M. Thorne was selected to deliver the address of welcome and various sub-committees were appointed. Mr. Job Hawhurst, the first grand chief templar of the State, was specially invited to be present and deliver an address at the opening of the session. The supreme templar of the order, Dr. H. Mann, of New York, will be present and a special session of the International Supreme Lodge will be held during the week.

A Straight Pointer. Every one admits that times are slow, but Christmas is coming just the same, and the question in people's minds this year is, What can I buy for the least money to satisfy the most friends? You can mark 13 elegant Christmas presents to 13 of your best friends by going to NARAMORE'S STUDIO and sitting now for a dozen fine Artistic Photographs and securing the premium portrait. One dozen fine Cabinets and a 16x20 half-size Portrait for $5, or one dozen Cabinets and a 11x14 Portrait for $3. How can you provide 13 as satisfactory presents to 13 persons for the same amount of money? Come now, while the weather is pleasant and before the holiday rush. Fine Gray Portraits from any old picture for $1. Remember the place, 321 King street. Respectfully, nov9-2w D. H. NARAMORE.

TO-MORROW, FRIDAY.

REMNANT DAY

Will be one of extraordinary values. Every department will respond to your call for bargains. Everything of a remnant character, no matter how low it was marked at first, is now marked at perhaps the least price ever given a remnant. We haven't once stopped to think of what this or that cost us. Rich choosings in the Black and Colored Dress Goods, Silks, and so on—this season's goods, in useful lengths, the lowest to the highest priced—marked to sell quickly. It's simply finding a length that will suit you. A lot of Jackets and Capes and Wraps on separate tables are priced so low that they oughtn't to be here but a short time to-morrow. This is the inclination of the remnants in every department. "Olds and ends," "broken sizes," "short lengths," of perfect goods; also things sold, mended, scratched, or otherwise defaced, all bear merely nominal prices. What you see here is but a suggestion of to-morrow's report.
